Greetings,

Welcome to the East Central College Department of Music! Thank you for your interest in our program. The Department of Music at East Central College offers a variety of performing and learning experiences. We offer music degree programs, a wide variety of performance opportunities, and a dynamic concert series for the campus and the region.

East Central College is an accredited institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Music. Our talented faculty members offer instruction in all areas of musical study. Whether you are interested in transferring to a baccalaureate degree, or pursuing selected courses for personal enrichment, you will find that we are committed to helping you achieve your academic and music goals.

We offer a rewarding cultural and intellectual learning environment. The college is recognized as a center of artistic excellence in the community. Students will have the opportunity to attend performances by world-class artists.

Our goal is to provide the very best experience for our students at East Central College. Please contact any one of us if you have questions about your study.

East Central College MISSION

Empowering students and enriching communities through education.

Music Department Mission

The mission of the music department is to provide quality educational experiences and culturally enrich the community.

East Central College VISION

East Central College will be a leader in higher education, inspiring academic excellence and driving community development.

Music Department Vision

East Central College Music Department will serve the needs of those in the college district by fostering the development of students' musical skills and abilities and enriching the community by providing educational and cultural opportunities through music.

Music Department Goals and Objectives

Goal I

The Music Department offers education to those who seek professional training and transfer to baccalaureate institutions as well as for those who pursue music as a vocation.

Objectives:

- Provides degrees and course works for music majors.
- Develop Students' musical skills. By the time students complete our program, they will be able to:
 1. Understand music in its historical and cultural context.
 2. Have a better understanding of the music they perform and hear. Develop knowledge of styles, genre, and historic periods.
 3. Develop technical skills and artistic abilities.
 4. Develop sight-reading skills.
 5. Gain knowledge of music literature and interpretive styles.
 6. Learn and apply music theoretical concepts.
 7. Develop efficient and effective practice skills.
 8. Perform in both solo and ensemble settings and be familiar with rehearsal techniques.
 9. Develop functional keyboard skills.

Goal II

Offer music courses in general education curricula as music courses for community members.

Objectives:

To broaden knowledge of music, provide live concert experience, and develop intellectual listening skills in music.

Goal III

Fulfill ECC's Common Learning Objectives (Communication, Critical and Creative Thinking, Ethical and Social Responsibility), reflect ECC's Mission Statement and be tied to ECC's Strategic Plan.

Objectives:

- Map curriculum to align course and program outcomes with institutional outcomes.
- Assess degree and General Education courses with identified performance indicators.

Goal IV

Serve as an accessible, creative, and intellectual resource for the greater college community.

Objectives:

- Offer a variety of high-quality professional programming.
- Provide performance opportunities for both individuals and ensembles through community ensemble concerts and music festivals.
- Develop creative experiences between music and related disciplines. Foster artistic and intellectual growth of faculty and students.

Goal V

Maintain the standard of excellence as established by the National Association of Schools of Music.

Objectives:

- The music department offers curricula in accordance with the standards established by the National Association of Schools of Music.
- Cultivate relationships with other artistic and cultural organizations.

Degrees

East Central College offers two Associate degrees with emphasis in music: AFA in Music (Associate of Fine Arts in Music) and AA with Arts and Humanities Guided Pathway with Music Emphasis. Information about the degree plans can be found on ECC website:

<http://catalog.eastcentral.edu/content.php?catoid=7&navoid=557>

Associate of Arts Degree

Students seeking a transfer credential from East Central College will traditionally study in an Associate of Arts (AA) degree program. Each AA degree program is comprised of a 42 credit hour block of general education coursework coupled with a minimum of 18 credit hours of elective coursework, typically in the academic discipline chosen.

Each of the AA degree areas listed specifies coursework in a semester by semester arrangement

Degree Requirements

Candidates for an Associate of Arts degree must meet the following degree requirements:

- Completion of a minimum of 60 college semester credit hours (a combination of the general education requirements and elective coursework), excluding developmental coursework (coursework numbered below 1000) or continuing education coursework
- A minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.00 on all college credit earned
- Satisfaction of the college residency requirement (a minimum of 15 hours must be completed at East Central College)

Missouri Core 42 General Education Requirements

Students must complete the 42-credit hour minimum skills and knowledge requirements for general education. Completion of this requirement will enable students transferring to a Missouri public four-year college or university to enter having satisfied the lower-level general education requirements and enter at the junior level.

Degree Options

East Central College offers students a variety of options in the Associate of Arts degrees. These options reflect departmental and discipline-based requirements. For all Associate of Arts degree options, students should carefully consider transfer institution and baccalaureate degree requirements. The following list is accurate as of publication. Students should discuss elective options in the Associate Arts degrees with an academic advisor and/or the transfer institution.

In each of the following degree listings, the semester by semester plans include the following information:

- Plans assume students are entering and starting at the college level courses in English and mathematics; for students needing prerequisite coursework, the planning of their degree will differ.
- General Education core coursework must be completed from the Missouri Transfer Core 42 Knowledge Areas
- Information on the AA degree options is provided at the Academic Programs section. In some of the areas listed, different degree options are available.

Associate of Arts - Arts and Humanities Guided Pathways to Success with Music Emphasis http://catalog.eastcentral.edu/preview_program.php?catoid=7&poid=640&returnto=551 The Arts and Humanities Pathway will introduce students to the history of ideas that have defined cultures through a study of the visual arts, literature, theater, music, and journalism. We emphasize connections among the arts, and how artistic expression has shaped humanity. Students may choose to pursue an AFA in Art or Music or an AA with tracks in English, Journalism/Mass Media, Music, or Theater that will prepare them to obtain a bachelor's degree and work in a wide variety of fields.

Associate of Fine Arts (AFA) Degree

The Associate of Fine Arts (AFA) Degree is an institutional fine arts degree, with options in studio art and music. A specifically articulated degree with specific Missouri baccalaureate institutions, the AFA degree is comprised of a general education core tailored to students interested in study in a Bachelor of Fine Arts program and the necessary fine arts coursework to prepare students for that study, totaling a minimum of 64 credit hours. Students may choose from a variety of elective coursework appropriate for the specialized areas of studio art and music.

Degree Requirements

Candidates for an Associate of Fine Arts (AFA) degree must meet the following degree requirements:

- Completion of an approved program of study, consisting of a minimum of 64 college semester credit hours (a combination of the general education requirements and program requirement coursework), excluding developmental coursework.
- A minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.00 on all college credit earned
- Satisfaction of the college residency requirement (a minimum of 15 of the last 30 credit hours must be completed at East Central College)

General Education Requirements

Students must complete the specific coursework for general education as detailed in the AFA degree plan.

Associate of Fine Arts in Music (AFA in Music)

The East Central College Associate of Fine Arts (AFA) in Music is designed to transfer into baccalaureate degree programs for students who wish to complete a Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA) in Music, a Bachelor of Music (BM), or a Bachelor of Arts (BA) in Music. The curriculum provides general education courses required of liberal arts students and music specialization courses required by four-year institutions. The purpose of the AFA degree is to provide the first two years of preparation (assuming appropriate placement scores) for those students interested in careers in performance, music theory/composition, music therapy, and music business. The AFA curriculum aligns with the first two years of the transfer institution's degree program. It provides students the flexibility and optimal opportunity to work with their respective four-year degrees. The AFA in Music is also appropriate for students who want additional training in music for their present career, without the need to pursue a bachelor's degree.

Course Offerings

The offerings in the Music Department are not limited to Music Majors. The applied lessons, ensembles and music appreciation, world music, and survey of literature courses are offered as a general enrichment program.

General Information

Placement Exams

While East Central College is an “open enrollment” institution, meaning anyone can enroll as a music major, students declaring music as the major are enrolled in core music classes. Pretesting music in Written Theory, Aural Theory, and Class Piano ensures that students are adequately prepared for success. Therefore, placement examinations are administered to assess the student’s ability to read and study music. Students who do not score above the minimum level may be advised to enroll in Fundamentals of Music [MU 1003] before registering for the core music courses. It is noted that the course of action will add one year of study at East Central College to achieve any of the Associate degrees in music. Ideally, students should enroll in Written Theory I, Aural Theory I, and Class Piano I concurrently.

Freshman music students are enrolled in Class Piano I unless the student has had a significant piano background. If so, please consult with the class piano instructor before the first week of class. An exam will be given to assess the student’s capability and to determine placement. Please see Appendix D for Class Piano Placement Guide.

Recital Attendance

The Music Department and ECC Patrons of the Arts annually host and fund nationally renowned performers of various genres at no cost to students and minimal cost to outside attendees. A concert season schedule is listed on the last page of this handbook. Music major students are required to attend a minimum number of 8 recitals each semester on campus (two of these recitals may be performances given by the student). Attendance sign-up sheets will be available at the beginning and end of each concert and attendance will be documented.

Studio Performance Class

To enhance the knowledge of the applied lesson repertoire including historical background of the repertoire, theoretical syntheses of the music and performance aspects of the assigned work in applied lessons. Studio Performance Class will meet on the second and fourth Friday at 1:00p.m.-2:00p.m. of each month in room HH101.

Juries

Juries take place during final exam week each semester in all performance areas: voice, piano, and all other applied instruments. Approximately one month prior to jury week, students will need to sign up for a jury time. The sign-up sheets will be posted on the Music Department bulletin board. Prior to the student’s jury, a jury repertoire sheet needs to be completed. The jury repertoire sheets will be provided by each instructor. Students should study course syllabi and check with their area coordinators for specific jury requirements. Jury repertoire sheets can be found in Appendix B, Jury rubrics can be found in Appendix C.

Facilities

All the ECC Music Department facilities are located on the Union campus. The primary facility for the music department is located in the AC building and include:

- classrooms for theory, music history, general education music courses, all containing smart boards, computers with internet access, speakers, and pianos. These are also used for other college classes not related to the music unit.
- one instrumental room, capable of supporting a 80 plus member band, which also doubles as a small recital space.
- one choral rehearsal room

- one new Yamaha keyboard lab, containing 12 digital piano stations linked to a central instructor's station and 4 computer stations with music theory software.
- the John Edson Anglin Performing Arts Center containing a shared performance theater space, with a seating capacity of 450, plus backstage area; and additional green rooms.
- One performance library, housing the printed choral and band scores
- 6 individual faculty studios
- 4 individual practice rooms
- One instrumental storage room
- One Fine and Performing Arts Division staff office

Music Computer Lab & Practice Rooms

The brand-new piano lab is located in HH120. The music computer lab is also located in HH120. There are four computers with music theory software. The piano lab is open daily for students to practice the piano. Piano major students can sign up to practice on the baby grand piano in HH107. The department practice rooms are located on the lower level of the John Edson Anglin Performance Arts Center.

Accompanists

The music department provides accompanist for studio lessons, rehearsals, recitals, and juries. At the beginning of each semester, students will schedule time with the accompanist through the studio instructor. The cost of accompanist is included in the applied lesson fee. Vocal students can work with an accompanist for a total of eight 30-minute rehearsals or lessons per semester. Instrumental students can work with an accompanist for a total of four 30-minute rehearsals or lessons per semester.

Student Recitals

Performance opportunities are an important component of the music department. Sign-up sheets for the recitals will be posted no later than two weeks before the scheduled date. Students performing in the recitals must have permissions from their applied instructor. Appropriate attire is required for the recitals. Students must seek their applied teachers' approval for all formal public performances and auditions.

Health and Safety

The Music Department is concerned with the health and safety of all music students, faculty, and staff. It is essential that musicians carry out their daily practice and performance activities carefully.

From the NASM Handbook:

Students enrolled in music unit programs and faculty and staff with employment status in the music unit must be provided basic information about the maintenance of health and safety within the contexts of practice, performance, teaching, and listening.

NOTE: Health and safety depend in large part on the personal decisions of informed individuals. Institutions have health and wellness responsibilities, but fulfillment of these responsibilities cannot and will not ensure any specific individual's health and safety. Too many factors beyond any institution's control are involved. Individuals have a critically important role and each is personally responsible for avoiding risk and preventing injuries to themselves before, during, and after study or employment at any institution.

The following resources are for informational purposes only. They are not a substitute for professional or medical advice. Students should consult with their studio instructors, their ensemble directors and medical professionals for specific concerns.

Hearing Health

The National Association of Schools of Music (NASM) and the Performing Arts Medicine Association \(PAMA\) have developed a comprehensive overview of hearing health issues for postsecondary schools and departments of music. Information of a medical nature is provided by PAMA; information regarding contextual issues in music programs, by NASM. This section of the website provides a “tool kit” of documents focused on the issue of hearing health. It addresses the risk of noise-induced hearing loss, a widespread and serious public health issue for musicians and others.

VOCAL HEALTH FOR SINGERS

As singers, we are dependent on the health and function of the entire body. While some health issues, such as allergies, asthma, or gastric reflux must be addressed by a health care professional, there are many habits that we can cultivate to keep our voices healthy.

Maintaining vocal health involves: Rest, Hydration, and Proper Use

REST

Rest your body. We each have differing needs to function at our best. Know your own sleep needs and stick to them, especially the night before a voice lesson or a performance!

1. Maintain a regular sleep schedule; even on the weekends.
2. Avoid computers and cell phones for the last hour before bedtime. The blue light from these Screens cue the body to wake up because your body interprets it as daylight!
3. Watch out for hidden sources of caffeine such as chocolate and avoid it before bedtime

Rest your voice. Again, we each have different needs. Some of us can speak or sing for longer periods of time than others. Are you speaking more than you need to?

1. Avoid speaking during class breaks. Step away from common areas and find a quiet place. Take a “vocal nap”!
2. A warm-up is exactly that; a few minutes spent vocalizing and stretching the instrument. Do NOT sing your whole performance or repeatedly sing high notes in an attempt to reassure yourself that they are there!
3. Speak with the same legato line you strive for when singing.
4. Men: stay out of your falsetto register during and immediately following a cold. Use of falsetto during or immediately after a cold can cause swelling and delay recovery.
5. Parties and crowded places can encourage us to speak loudly and more excitedly. This is to be avoided in general but especially before a voice lesson or performance.

HYDRATION

Most of us are dehydrated most of the time!

1. Aim for 6-8 glasses of water per day.
2. Avoid caffeine and alcohol because they dehydrate you and your voice!
3. Humidify your home and your workspace
4. Vocalize in the shower. The steam and humidity are great for the vocal mechanism!
5. Heating systems dry out the throat and nasal cavity. Be prepared for winter!

DID YOU KNOW: When the throat and nasal passages are dry, they are MORE prone to retain the germs that cause colds and respiratory illness!

Keep hydrated at all times! Avoid caffeinated drinks and alcohol OR

Follow caffeinated or alcoholic beverages with water!

PROPER USE OF THE VOICE - WARMING UP

Topics such as correct posture and body alignment, breathing and tone production will be discussed in detail at your individual lesson. However, prior to rehearsals, practice sessions and performances, it is important for you to properly warm up the voice. Like a stretching routine before a physical workout, a vocal warm-up routine will ease you into singing and reduce the strain on your voice.

Warm up exercises specific to your voice will be assigned in your lesson. The following exercises can be used by all voice categories:

EX. #1 – Trills – Use your lips to “buzz” (trill) a sliding scale of an octave
Use your tongue to trill a sliding scale of an octave

EX. #2 – Straw Exercises – Take a drinking straw and close your lips around it. Sing “uh” into the straw, sliding one octave back and forth, low to high.

You can also try this exercise using a cup of water. Fill the glass about half-full and sing “uh” into the straw while it is in the cup of water. Try to keep the stream of air consistent so you constantly are making bubbles. If the water is splashing you in the face, you are directing too much air through the straw (and your vocal folds!).

If the sound stops when you put a finger over the end of the straw, you are directing too much air through your nose.

This is an excellent warm up for both your singing and speaking voice because it actually stretches and thins the vocal folds. The folds function best in this state.

There are numerous YouTube tutorials on the topic of straw exercises if you would like more information.

PROTECT YOUR HEARING. As a musician, you are dependent on your hearing! Consider the use of ear plugs if you will be exposed to prolonged, loud sounds at work, in public places or even in your car. DAMAGED HEARING CAN RARELY BE FIXED.

Like an athlete, your body IS your instrument. Treat it with care and it will serve you for many years to come!

Handling Instruments and Equipment

Only ECC facility staff or other authorized personnel should move heavy equipment or handle any potentially dangerous materials. Music students, faculty and staff are advised to consult with the Director of Grounds and Facility for proper handling of any potentially dangerous materials. Use of recording devices, music technology and electronics must be done with guidance from authorized personnel.

Students working as stage managers or assisting productions must be trained to properly handle and move any equipment including audio/recording equipment, risers, percussion instruments, etc.

Students are expected to clean and maintain their instruments regularly. Special attention to the Department of Music instruments that are shared is especially important. As a rule. Students should have their own instrument. When this is not possible, students who share a woodwind instrument should have their own mouthpiece. All students who are sharing a reed instrument must have their own reeds. The Department of Music will provide alcohol wipes or Sterisol germicide solution for student use when sharing instruments in class.

APPENDIX A

Full-Time Faculty Biographies

Aaron Bounds, aaron.bounds@eastcentral.edu, Assistant Professor Aaron Bounds is in his sixteenth year as Director of Bands at East Central College. At East Central College he has taught World Music, Fundamentals of Music Theory, Music Appreciation, Low Brass private lessons, Jazz Combo, Jazz Band and Concert Band. Aaron has also developed and taught Music Appreciation: The Age of Rock & Roll as well as Jazz Appreciation. In 2006, Aaron received his Bachelor's Degree in Music Education and in 2008 he received his Master's in Music, both from Missouri State University in Springfield. Throughout his studies at Missouri State, Aaron performed with many ensembles including MSU Jazz Band under the direction of Jerry Hoover, MSU Lab Band directed by Randall Hamm, MSU Wind Ensemble under Dr. Belva Prather, and the MSU Orchestra with Dr. Robert Quebbeman. During this time, Aaron also performed with the Madison Scouts Drum and Bugle Corps for two summers (2003, 2004). Currently Aaron stays busy balancing his local jazz combo "Friends of Aaron" and his beautiful family; Emily (wife) and two sons, Carl and Theodore. The ECC Band program has seen much growth over the years, and Aaron hopes to continue this development as the ensembles progress with literature.

Dr. Jennifer Judd, jennifer.judd@eastcentral.edu, is an accomplished solo recitalist and chamber musician. She is also in frequent demand as a clinician and adjudicator across the country. Dr. Judd is Professor of Music at East Central College. During her tenure at the ECC, she has given more than 400 performances in concert halls, area schools and the community. She has appeared as soloist with St. Louis Wind Symphony, University City Symphony Orchestra, Southeast Missouri Symphony Orchestra, University of Missouri-Kansas City Orchestra, St. Louis Brass Band, Jefferson City Symphony Orchestra, Clayton Symphony Orchestra, and ECC Wind Ensemble. Dr. Judd has been regularly featured in the Christ Church Cathedral Concert Series and the "Sunday at Three" Chamber Music Series for more than a decade. In 1997, Dr. Judd and Annette Burkhart, a piano faculty member from Washington University, formed a piano duo team and have performed in various concert series and university campuses throughout the Midwest. Dr. Judd has performed in Italy, Spain, Philippines, Taiwan, Sweden, and a series of concerts in China. Dr. Judd was awarded the Permanent Professional Certificate by the Music Teachers National Association. Many of her piano students have won top awards in state and national competitions. Several of her articles were published in the "Keyboard Companion." Dr. Judd is the recipient of 2012 Governor's Excellence in Teaching Award and 2013 Emerson's Excellence in Teaching Award. Dr. Judd holds a Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Missouri-Kansas City Conservatory of Music, where she studied with Curators' Professor Joanne Baker.

Dr. Timothy C. Sexton, timothy.sexton@eastcentral.edu, is the director of choirs at East Central College, where he also teaches Music Theory, Ear Training, Music Appreciation. He is Artistic Director for the East Central Children's Chorale and conducts the College Choir, Jazz Vocal Ensemble, and Choral Association. Tim graduated in 2009 with his Doctorate of Musical Arts in Conducting from the University of South Carolina under the direction of Dr. Larry Wyatt. He also holds a Bachelor's and Master's in Music Education from Western Kentucky University. Tim has taught at both the middle school and high levels. Choirs under his direction have performed in Austria, Germany, France, and several cities across the United States. Currently, he serves as the 2-year College Repertoire and Standards Chair for the Missouri Chapter of the American Choral Director's Association. Tim is also the Minister of Music at Zion United Church of Christ in Union where he directs the Chancel Choir, Adult Handbells, and Youth Handbells.

Adjunct Faculty Biographies

Jeremy Bates jeremy.bates@eastcentral.edu is a native of Pacific, Missouri. His education has taken him across Missouri, graduating with an Associate of Arts from East Central College in 2015, Bachelor of Music Education from Southeast Missouri State University in 2018, and Master of Music with an emphasis in voice from Webster University in 2020. Bates also traveled to Angers, France with the Franco-American Vocal Academy in 2017, studying the French language, performing in an opera, and making recital appearances. Throughout his musical experiences, Bates has performed iconic tenor roles such as Nemorino in Donizetti's L'elisir d'amore, Jenik in Smetana's The Bartered Bride, and Don Ottavio in Mozart's Don Giovanni. He was featured as a recitalist during the Christine Brewer residencies in 2019 and 2020 at Webster University. Bates made his professional opera debut with Winter Opera of St. Louis in their most recent 13th season. He most recently joined the faculty of East Central College in the Fall of 2020.

Dr. Lisa Blackmore, lisa.blackmore@eastcentral.edu, teaches music at East Central College in Union, MO including trumpet, horn, and music courses in Music History, World Music, and Music Appreciation. She retired in 2022 from UMSL where she taught trumpet and served on the Curriculum Committee and Concerto Competition Committee. She earned a DMA in Trumpet with a minor in Music History at the University of Illinois-Urbana/Champaign, where she received the Graduate College Dissertation Award in Musicology. Dr. Blackmore also holds degrees from Mizzou and Stony Brook University. Dr. Blackmore is a recipient of the Missouri Community College Association's Outstanding Adjunct Award for 2021. She served nearly 30 years as a trumpet adjudicator for the Missouri All-State Band and Orchestra, and her students have performed in the St. Louis Youth Symphony and various Missouri All-State ensembles. Her university trumpet ensembles performed twice at International Trumpet Guild conferences; the ensemble from UMSL playing at the 2015 conference in Ohio where they premiered Eight Through Eleven: Four Episodes for Seven Trumpets by Zachary Cairns. The UMSL ensemble was scheduled to perform at the 2020 conference before it was canceled due to Covid. She serves on the committee for ITG Affiliate Chapters. She has performed several times at MMEA conferences; her first appearance was as a member of the inaugural Missouri All-State Band as a senior in high school. Notable solo premieres include Thoughts for Trumpet—Dennis E. Meyer for solo trumpet and concert band with the St. Louis Wind Symphony, Daniel Eichenbaum's Concertino (semifinalist for the 2016 American Prize) with the UMSL Wind Ensemble, and solos with the St. Louis Wind Symphony, UMSL Orchestra, Ambassadors of Harmony, Compton Heights Concert Band, and the Des Lee Fine Arts Collaborative Orchestra. She appeared as a soloist at the 2015 International Trumpet Guild Conference. She was a bugler with the MO Military Funeral Honors Program, performing Taps at over 400 military services for Missouri Veterans, and she is an auxiliary member of American Legion St. Louis Service Women's Post 404.

Naomi Joyce, naomi.joyce@eastcentral.edu is a collaborative pianist from Union, Missouri. If limited to one word to describe Naomi, "musician," would definitely rank at the top. God has put music in her heart, and it can't help but come out. In 2014, Naomi became a music student at ECC, under the instruction of Dr. Jennifer Judd. In spring 2016, Naomi served as the accompanist for Washington High School, where she accompanied four choirs and numerous soloists for the school year and state competition. In August of 2016, Naomi assumed the position of piano accompanist at ECC, where she now accompanies all the vocal and instrumental students, the college, jazz, and community choirs; as well as tutors the ECC music history & music theory students. Naomi graduated with her Associate of Arts and Associate of Fine Arts degrees from ECC in spring 2017. That same year she traveled to Valencia, Spain, for the Across Bridges Summer Piano Academy, where she participated in masterclasses, performed in a recital, and enjoyed taking lessons from renowned music professors from across the globe, including Dr. Michael Tsalka, María Teresa Frenk, and Dr. Jennifer Judd. When she's not working at ECC, Naomi can be found teaching piano and accordion lessons in her private studio or playing for events, gigs, weddings, and music competitions.
